Press Note.

No. R. F. 194-46—Pol. dated, Bangalore, the 5th June 1946.

PASSPORT FECILITIES FOR SIAM.

It is announced for the information of the public that there are at present no restrictions on the number or category of persons permitted to enter Siam, provided they are of good character, free from disease and have means of support in that country. Pending establishment of Siamese Consulates in India, British subjects holding valid passports may proceed to Siam without visas. It is not necessary to obtain permission for their entry into Siam. They should however report to Siamese authorities on arrival.
